Dear Parents and Carers

BHA Behaviour for Learning Policy – Detentions & Year 8 End of Year Events

To celebrate your son/daughter's time at Bredon Hill Academy and to reward their positive attitude, we are planning to hold three end of year events. The first is a trip to Bonkers Activities in Pershore on Friday 12th July followed by a Hill Walk on Wednesday 17th July. The final event is a Leavers' Party on Thursday 18th July where they can enjoy an informal evening of food and music. These events will be a wonderful opportunity for many of our Year 8 pupils to reminisce over their time together at BHA.

Initially, every pupil in Year 8 is invited to attend all events.

In line with our Behaviour for Learning Policy, please be aware that invitations can be withdrawn if we deem a pupil's behaviour, attitude or work ethic to be unacceptable. From Monday 22nd April, any pupil who gets two detentions or 8 sanctions will have their invitation to the party, hill walk and trip withdrawn.

A detention is issued when a pupil has not followed our Behaviour for Learning rules or has had three sanctions within one week.

We have no doubt that the majority of our pupils will maintain their positive attitude and will look forward to these end of year celebrations. We will, of course, contact you if your child's invitation is at risk.

Thank you for your ongoing support.
